McGrath Wins In Straight Falls

Clayton was Not in Class with Giant—Athletics Lose a Game They Needed—Detroit Wins, Then is Shutout—Pirates Take Doubleheader.

Another wrestler who had an idea he could lift the scalp of Jack McGrath, Irish Giant, and tried to do so Tuesday night in T. A. B. hall, went the way of the dozen or more who have preceded him. This was Captain Chas. Clayton, the strong man and weight lifter, but he was hardly a breakfast for the Giant, who stopped bigger and stronger than ever before. It was evident when the men faced each other, with an advantage of 20 to 30 pounds in Jack's favor, that Clayton was not in his class, which was a disappointment to the Giant, as he supposed he had arranged a go with a husky opponent who could give the crowd a rugged workout to watch.

There were about 200 enthusiastic shouters for the Giant in the hall when the referee, Joe Houston of Pawtucket, introduced the wrestler, Kid Wilson being timekeeper. McGrath towered above Clayton, who showed a considerable bald spot at the apex and traces of gray in his hair, while his build was slim and wiry rather than rugged and heavy. The match was best two out of three falls, catch as catch can, pinfalls to count and struggle hold barred. Clayton was aggressive at the start and worked hard to put Jack in danger, but the Giant was never seriously threatened, his great strength and weight enabling him to break out of the strong man's grip any time. At the end of 14 minutes and 30 seconds McGrath caught Clayton in a head scissor and finished the job and the first fall with a wrist hold.

One of Clayton's ribs was considerably mused up in the first scrum and he could offer no long resistance when they grappled again, McGrath getting him this time with a faro arm hold in 2 minutes and 30 seconds, thus winning the match, the gate receipts and side bet.

The main bout was preceded by a 135 pound preliminary between two young Greeks, George Dolchen and Strathery Ragonopoulos, and was won by Dolchen after Ragonopoulos had taken the first fall in 5-2 minutes. Dolchen, who looked the heavier, took the next two in 5 minutes and 2 minutes. The boys provided an interesting match.

A ringside challenge for the winner of the main bout was received from Bill Harris of Wisconsin, who sent a telegram from New York.

SOCCER FOOTBALL.
Norwich Team Will Go Into Practice Soon.

Soccer football is to be played here again this fall and winter, under the direction of the same enthusiasts of the game who introduced the sport last year. It is expected that Sachem park will again be used and the first match game may be arranged for the first Saturday in October.

So far no arrangements have been made about the grounds, but Captain Hilton will settle this question within a day or two. It is expected that a practice game may be arranged to be played somewhere on Saturday. A stronger team than last year is looked for this season.

Livonia an Overpowering Favorite.
Gravesend, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Livonia, Kid Wilson of this city is to referee the bouts.

Penia Maid Surprises the Talent.
Columbus, O., Sept. 21.—Penia Maid's victory over the Hostler-Columbus stake favorite, Margin, was the starting occurrence at this afternoon's second circuit races.

Elia Ambulator, winner of the 2.09 pace, in straight heats, was a strong favorite and was the third victorious member of the T. W. Murphy stable in two days.

Kid Wilson to Referee at Moosup.
Kid Wilson is reported in top shape for his go tonight at Moosup, in the 6 round preliminary against Kid Summers of Putnam, and the Putnam boy will have to step some to outpoint him in the seventh and final round.

It is also expected to be a hummer, bringing together Bill Collins of Central Village and Lagall of Worcester. Bill is always in shape while Lagall has been training hard and is counting on a surprise victory.

Against the man from Central Village, Kid Wilson of this city is to referee the bouts.

MARKET'S BRAVE START
CULMINATED IN UPSET

Speculation Confused on Adjusting Itself to New Considerations.

New York, Sept. 21.—After making a brave start, the stock speculation experienced some confusion in adjusting itself to some new considerations. The miscarriage of the movement which has centered in Reading will be given responsibility generally for the upset in the market, heavy unloading of that stock following the declaration of only the regular quarterly dividend of two per cent. on the Central Railroad of New Jersey stock. Up to this point in time before the directors of the company had assembled, the financial district was regaled with positive assertions that that stock was to be placed on a twelve per cent. dividend basis. The influence placed behind the speculation by Reading and the excessive commitments in the stock made it inevitable that a slump in it would affect the whole market. In the Philadelphia stock market, Lehigh Valley stock broke nearly 13 points on the 1909 Central dividend action. The disappointment in this matter brought home keenly to the speculative mind the extent to which it had been relying on rumors as vague and high priced as was this one. Various other incidents had been sowing the seeds of suspicion. An official announcement given out for publication yesterday by the Vulcan Detinning company declared that "many of the rumors put into circulation concerning this company are grossly exaggerated and likely to mislead the public." The stock broke six points in the early stock market today. As the same time, rumors were being circulated to the accompaniment of rapid advances in a host of minor stocks, there was a note of alarm sounded by these object lessons. Since the money market has been begun to be obstructed the stock market has given evidence of a steady movement to sell stocks under cover and to take advantage of all strong sustaining influences. The lesson was clearly implied that the leaders of the speculative movement were reducing their commitments and seeking to distribute their holdings at the high prices and realize their profits. Probably they were more or less constrained to this course by the pressure of the money situation and by the admonitions of the banks which have supplied the credits. The orderly and skillful manner in which the realizing movement is conducted indicates that it is proceeding from a very urgent pressure. Even today the market gave further evidence of the continued control exercised by the forces back of the market in the sharp rebound in prices which followed the break. United States Steel extended its record price to $5. Attention was paid, also, to a report, impossible of confirmation, of the intended dividing up of control of the Wash system amongst a number of other railroad companies. The storm reports from the south bore heavily on stocks of the railroads in the region affected. The substantial recovery from the break left final prices not much changed from last night. Bonds were weak. Total sales, par value, $5,312,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
